Postlethwaite & Netterville Welcomes Chief Operating Officer

Amy Mandart McGimsey has joined the firm as Chief Operating Officer. Amy has more than 20 years of experience. She joins P&N most recently from ICF International, where she had operational responsibilities relating to the Road Home Program. Prior to ICF, McGimsey held the position of Vice President of Operations for Aegis Lending Corporation. She has extensive operational and administrative management experience in the financial services industry. McGimsey will be responsible for the implementation of strategic goals for the firm, as well as for the operational responsibilities of the firm, including Marketing, Human Resources, and Administration.
