P&N Audit Director Selected for NORLI Class of 2011

Postlethwaite & Netterville (P&N), a top 100 U.S. public accounting firm and the largest Louisiana-based public accounting firm, is pleased to announce that Director Robert Brickman, CPA has been selected for the New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute (NORLI) Class of 2011.

NORLI's mission is to promote the understanding of and collaboration on issues affecting the New Orleans area community. Each year, NORLI selects a diverse group of business and civic leaders from the community to participate in this nine-month educational program. A total of 42 participants were selected to be a part of the Class of 2011.

Brickman has over 20 years of public accounting experience, working with publicly traded and privately held companies as well as non-profits, in diverse industries including manufacturing, technology, healthcare, and oil and gas. He has assisted clients with audit and accounting services, mergers and acquisitions, capital raising activities and other business challenges. Brickman's leadership and dedication both within the firm and in professional and community organizations make him an important addition of the Class of 2011 and to its mission of making the region a great place to live.

P&N (www.pncpa.com) serves privately held and public companies, non-profit entities, and individuals throughout Louisiana and the U.S. from its multi-office locations. Services include audit and assurance, internal audit and controls consulting, tax planning and preparation, business process reviews, small business consulting, litigation support, financial and business planning, business valuations, and technology consulting.
