Clinton McGrath Appointed to AICPA Relations With The Bar Committee

Postlethwaite & Netterville (P&N) is proud to announce that Associate Director Clinton McGrath, CPA, JD, LL.M., has been appointed to serve on the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' (AICPA) Relations With The Bar Committee.

The AICPA's Relations With The Bar Committee serves as the official liaison between the American Bar Association and the AICPA. The committee is focused on providing a forum for identifying, discussing, and implementing programs and procedures to resolve issues and enhance cooperation between the two professions. Clint's role as a member of this committee will be to utilize his professional tax experience to promote the objectives of the committee and of the AICPA as a whole.

Clint is a member of the AICPA & Tax Section, American Bar Association & Tax Section, D.C. Bar, the Federal Bar Association, and the American Association of Attorney – Certified Public Accountants. He has significant experience in the areas of corporate taxation, financial services/insurance industry taxation, mergers & acquisitions, tax due diligence, accounting for income taxes, international tax, and general business tax planning and modeling.

Postlethwaite & Netterville (www.pncpa.com) serves privately held and public companies, non-profit entities, and individuals throughout Louisiana and the U.S. from its multi-office locations. The firm offers a full range of diversified services, including audit and assurance, internal audit and controls consulting, tax planning and preparation, business process reviews, small business consulting, litigation support, financial and business planning, business valuations, and technology consulting.
