P&N Director Named to Forty Under 40

P&N is proud to announce that director Bonnie Hunt, CPA, was named to the Baton Rouge Business Report's Forty Under 40 for 2009. Bonnie is recognized for her outstanding professional accomplishments and community involvement.

Bonnie was promoted to director at P&N earlier this year, and is involved with every aspect of the firm, from working with large corporate clients to recruiting new employees on college campuses to mentoring young professionals. She also serves on the board for the Construction Finance Management Association.

In addition to a thriving career, Bonnie works closely with the development of the Knock Knock Children's Museum, which she hopes will provide opportunities for young children, their families, and their caretakers to relate fun and excitement with learning and education. She has also volunteered for other charitable organizations, such as Friends of the Baton Rouge Zoo.

This is the fifteenth year that the Business Report has recognized individuals under the age of 40 for their personal and professional accomplishments. More than 225 nominations were submitted, and the 40 winners were selected by prominent members of the business community. Click here to see the full list of winners.
